EMERGENCIES

In any emergency of any nature, come to the right side door of the press box (as you face press box), or contact any usher on duty. First aid stations are on either side of field beneath stands with trained personnel on duty. Telephones are located at the north-east, northwest, southeast, and southwest ticket booths.

RESTROOMS

Ladies' and men's restrooms are located beneath the stands and can be reached by exit from any portal. There are 4 ladies' and 4 men's restrooms on each side of the stadium and one each under the new west stands.

CONCESSION STANDS

Concession stands are located underneath each side of the stadium and west end stands and can be reached by exit from any portal. The stands handle soft drinks, sandwiches, cigarettes, popcorn, peanuts, candy, etc. Vendors also sell these items in the stands.

IN LEAVING

In leaving the stadium, please give utmost heed to the directions from officers on duty. New parking lots and exit roads have been added this year for your convenience. Please cooperate with traffic officers. Cars will be cleared from parking lots as quickly as possible.

Welcome to Clemson

We are delighted to have each of you with us today to enjoy the strong competitive college football of which we at Clemson are so proud. Clemson games are always eventful and memorable, and sometimes explosive and dramatic.

As you look out from this magnificent stadium, beyond the flashing eyes of the scoreboard tiger, you will readily see much of the tremendous physical expansion taking place on this old, picturesque plantation.

We hope, too, as you tour our campus and talk with our people, you will grasp the enormous good works being done here---and sense the steady growth of excellence in our educational programs.

Whether joyous or disappointed with the outcome of today's game, we hope you will leave Clemson with plans to visit us again soon, and often.

About The Coach . . .

Frank Howard is now in his 32nd year on the Clemson staff and the team representing the Tigers on the playing field today is Howard's 23rd Clemson eleven.

His stay at Clemson is unparalleled for a head coach and only Jess Neely at Rice has been at one institution as long as Howard. Both Neely and Howard have held their respective positions longer than anyone else in college athletics today.

Howard's Tigers have played in six major post-season bowl games—more than any other team in the Atlantic Coast Conference—and the Tigers also have the best bowl record of any ACC team with four wins and three losses.

In the nine years of conference competition Howard has guided the Tigers to an overall 57-32-1 mark, second only to Duke's 57-30-6. Against league foes only, the Tigers are 31-15-1 prior to the 1962 season.

The Century Club . .

Fifteen coaches who are at major football institutions (as classified by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau) have now won 100 or more games in their careers. Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse, Woody Hayes of Ohio State, Andy Gustafson of Miami (Fla.) Rip Engle of Penn State and Odus Mitchell of North Texas State joined the growing list after last season. A possible member during the 1962 season is Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee, who now has 95 wins. Coach Frank Howard of the Clemson Tigers ranks sixth in the nation for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members.

The Auburn Series

Clemson and Auburn have a lot in common when it comes to football. Prof. W. M. Riggs, who served as Clemson's first coach and who later became the college president, was an Auburn man and after arriving at Clemson, he organized the school's first gridiron machine. This was in 1896.

Riggs served as coach again in 1899 but the Football Aid Society was formed that year with the prime purpose of getting a well known coach to guide the destiny of future teams.

The man employed was John W. Heisman—who came to Clemson from Auburn. Heisman gave Clemson its first undefeated team (1900) and in four years Heisman teams amassed a 19-3-2 record and Clemson teams were feared throughout the south.

Because Clemson's first football history was engineered by Auburn people, it is thought that the present Clemson nickname and colors were also Auburn inspired.

Because of the close bond between the two schools brought about by Clemson's early coaches, it was only natural that Clemson and Auburn would start facing each other on the gridiron.

This was done in 1899 with Auburn winning, 34-0. Auburn also had a shutout in 1904 (5-0) and Clemson recorded white-washes in 1902 (16-0) and 1905 (6-0). The 1906 score was 6-4 in favor of Clemson and those four points (on two field goals) were the only points scored on the Tigers that year.

Auburn has the upperhand in the series, leading 25-11-2, and they gained this big cushion starting in 1907 and going through 1926 when they picked up 16 consecutive triumphs, giving Clemson only 12 points during the time and recording 14 shutouts, 10 of them in a row.

Today will be the 15th meeting for Coach Frank Howard with an Auburn team and he has fared somewhat better than the ones who came before. Howard trails in the series, 5-8-1.

The last time Auburn came to Clemson was in 1953 when the Plainsmen won handily, 45-19. In a previous visit to Clemson (1951) the Gator-Bowl-bound Howard Tigers poured it on, 34-0, with Billy Hair completing 15 of 26 passes for 184 yards and two touchdowns, scoring another on the ground and rushing for 113 yards in 19 carries. Altogether, Clemson registered 524 yards that day running and passing.

And the year before on a sub-freezing day at Auburn, it is said the Orange Bowl people told Clemson if they beat Auburn by 40 points, they had the bid. Fred Cone scored three touchdowns rushing, one receiving, accounted for 163 yards in 33 rushes and Clemson won, 41-0.

But Auburn has won more than its share of lopsided games. The biggest win was 56-0 in 1921. It was 47-0 in 1926 and 41-13 in 1942. Auburn's average score in the series is 17.1 while Clemson's is 7.0.

"OFFICIAL WATCH FOR THIS GAME — LONGINES — THE WORLD'S MOST HONORED WATCH"

Auburn University Tigers . . .

Should a gentleman offer a Tiparillo to a lady?

What is the story of this remarkable new smoke by Robt. Burns?

If she enjoys smoking a cigarette, why not? The Tiparillo* is slim, neat, mild as mild can be. Go ahead, offer her one.

But although Tiparillo is not "men only" it is "men mainly."

And that new pliable, pearly tip pays more than just lip service to your smoking pleasure. It's your mouthpiece to the careful blending of choicest imported tobaccos. Tiparillo has the kind of flavor you don't have to inhale to enjoy... peace of mind in every puff. Moreover, there's the exclusive veinless Ultra Cigar Wrapper* that burns so evenly and smoothly it insures complete mildness.

The surprisingly whiter ash is visible evidence of Tiparillo mildness. And that's your best smoking tip for today. Only 5¢ each. ONLY 5¢? Yes, only 5¢.

Much Ado in '62

by TED SMITS

General Sports Editor, The Associated Press

College football in 1962 is being moulded by the personalities of the men who coach it, by the talent of the men who play it, and by one interesting change in the rules.

The rule change permits the kicking team to down the ball within the opponent's 10 yard line. Previously this was a touchback, bringing the ball out to the 20 yard line. The new refinement puts an even high premium on punting, and brings into play downfield blocking where previously a polite game of tag was played.

It puts a premium, too, on catching the ball and running it out—and that could make for excitement in the form of fumbles and more scoring opportunities.

There now seems to be general agreement that the rule on substitutions is free enough to bring into action all the talent that a team has, when it needs it. It isn't platoon football. It is tribe football.

There is a subtle change that has been under way for some time and only now is coming into full flower. That is the requirement that a quarterback should be something more than just a good thrower. He must be a tailback as well, a resourceful and heady runner, particularly if effective passes are to develop out of plays that start out as sweeps.

All this put together—more punting, more opportunities for fumbles in the shadow of the goal line, fluid substitutions, quarterbacks who both pass and run—adds up to a sparkling offensive game.

Wider use of the winged-T and of the lone-some end has also opened up the college game for the better. Although the single wing still has its staunch adherents—and when beautifully executed there isn't a prettier game—the trend to the T with all its variations continues unabated.

Just as the offense has become more brilliant, so, too, has the defense. The "Oklahoma style" defense of five men on the line with the other six positioned to guard against passes or runs has been giving way to a six-man front with the tackles wide. There is even a tendency to an eight-man front line on defense.

Along with all these theories and the touchback rule change making for an open, interesting game there has been a determination on the part of officialdom to protect the players from injury. Too many men were hurt last year, with the result that orders went out to enforce to the letter the rules against piling on the ball carrier, and clipping. That explains the whistle blowing you hear.

There is mathematical proof that all these developments are a delight to behold. Attendance at college football games in 1961 increased for the eighth consecutive year to an all-time record total of 20,677,604 in games at 616 senior colleges. This was 274,195 more spectators than set the previous attendance record in 1960. Everything points to another new high mark in 1962.

So now spread before you is the game of football. It is as old as recorded history—the combination of willing men and a ball that can be kicked. It is also eternally new, changing subtly through the years, but retaining an emotional hold on spectators and participants alike. The bond that unites everyone within a stadium, regardless of partisanship, comes from the season of the year, from friendships and campus memories, from the vivid colors on the field, and above all from the high drama of the game itself.

1962 RULES CHANGES

by CHARLES W. TUCKER, JR.

1961's number one controversy provokes the chief rules
change

The Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association has added no new rules for 1962, but they have amended several of the old rules, which will give them a new look from the point of view of the grid fan, and which should be mentioned here in order to clarify what has happened. There have also been the usual number of technical changes in wording and rewriting to further simplify the application of the rules, but these will not be noticed by the spectator. Of the four or five changes in this year's rules, the one which will be the most conspicuous is the change in the rule governing the extension of a period; and it may be well to refresh our memories on this one in light of the controversy that developed in the Notre Dame-Syracuse game last November.

Syracuse was leading 15-14; and on the last play of the game Notre Dame tried a field goal, which failed. Time had expired on the play, but one of the officials called a penalty on a Syracuse end for roughing the holder of the kick. After a 15-yard penalty, Notre Dame tried another field goal, and this one was successful—thereby winning the game for them 17-15. After the game was over, a considerable controversy developed as to whether Notre Dame should have had another play. The rule governing extension of a period is rather long and somewhat complicated to the average fan, but there is one part of the rule which specifically states that the period shall not end if there is a foul on the last play by team B while team A is in possession of the ball. The Official N.C.A.A. Rules Interpretations contained ambiguous statements as to what constituted "possession" in the case of an attempted field goal. This led to the technical dispute that caused so much discussion last fall. The Rules Committee has now amended this rule in order to prevent any future occurrence of such a rhubarb. They have simply eliminated that part of the rule which reads, "a foul by team B while team A is in possession." In other words, if team B fouls team A on the last play of the game this year, team A gets another play regardless of whether they had kicked or passed the ball.

Among the other changes which will be noticed by you astute fans are the following:

TEAM A MAY NOW DOWN THEIR OWN SCRIMMAGE KICK WITHIN TEAM B'S 10-YARD LINE WITHOUT PENALTY.

For many years, team A has not been permitted to touch its scrimmage kick within team B's 10-yard line without penalty. The penalty was a touchback which gave team B the ball on its 20-yard line, first and ten to go. In years gone by, one of the great weapons in offensive football was a good kicker who could get that ball high enough to get his ends down the field and far enough to put it close to the opponent's goal line. If the ends were successful in downing the ball close to the goal line, team B was in the hole with their back to the wall. Because of the fact that there was vicious blocking by both teams, around the ball, the defense blocking out the offensive players in the hope that the ball would roll across the goal line for a touchback, and the offense trying to block out the defensive players in an attempt to get at the ball, the rule was put in the book restricting the offensive team from touching the ball within team B's 10-yard line. The Committee has now decided to change the rule back to where it was many years ago with no restriction on the kicking team attempting to down their own kick. So, we can assume there will be plenty of action on a punted ball near the goal line this season.

PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL SHIFT REDUCED FROM 15 YARDS TO 5 YARDS.

This is the second time this penalty has been changed in the past several years. On many plays there is a very fine distinction as to what is an illegal shift, which carries a 15-yard penalty, and an illegal motion, which carries a 5-yard penalty. Most officials are reluctant to take 15 yards away from a team on a borderline decision for an infraction no more serious than one which carries a 5-yard penalty. For this reason, it is quite possible that there were illegal shifts which were not penalized. By reducing the penalty on an illegal shift from 15 yards to 5 yards, it is now in the same category with illegal motion and will probably be penalized more frequently in the future.

"DELIVER A BLOW" INSERTED IN THE DISQUALIFYING FOULS RULE.

Last year, the disqualification rule stated that no player should strike an opponent with his fist, extended forearm, elbow or locked hands, or kick or knee an opponent. Penalty—15 yards and disqualification from further participation in the game. Apparently, the language of striking an opponent with extended forearm, elbow or locked hands was not strong enough, so they have inserted the words "deliver a blow" with extended forearm, elbow or locked hands which is quite clear in its language.

PENALTY FOR ILLEGALLY KICKING A BALL IN PLAYER-POSSESSION INCREASED FROM 5 TO 15 YARDS.

Last year, the penalty for illegally kicking a ball in player-possession was 5 yards from the spot. This year, the rule has been changed to 15 yards from the previous spot. In other words, if a defensive tackle broke through the line of scrimmage and deliberately kicked the ball out of the hands of an opponent who was holding it for a place kick, the penalty would now be 15 yards from the spot where the ball was snapped. The rule also goes further and states that this year no player shall deliberately kick a forward pass. This is a good trick if you can do it, but not in the eyes of the Rules Committee, as they have prescribed a 15-yard penalty from the previous spot for such an act. The penalty for deliberately kicking a free ball remains the same—offended team's ball at the spot of the foul.

Nobody Says

"Sis-Boom-Bah" Any More

It went out of date with the flying-wedge and handlebar mustaches. But the game goes on with new plays and new cheers. Uniforms are an ancient and traditional garb but today we bring to them modern fabrics—improved technique—advanced craftsmanship and contemporary design. Uniforms for Clemson and other fine colleges—"Uniforms of Distinction!"

Take a puff...it's Springtime!

Salem refreshes your taste —air-softens— every puff

In the rich taste of a Salem cigarette, you'll notice a softness very like the clear, mild springtime air. You'll find Salem refreshes your taste, just as springtime refreshes you.
